

JAZZ.FM91 MUSICIAN'S BENEVOLENT FUND
Request for financial Assistance

The JAZZ.FM91 Musician's Benevolent fund is available to jazz musicians in need of short term financial assistance, due to unforeseen emergency circumstances such as illness, injury, severe personal or financial hardship. "Emergency circumstances" will be considered if they have led to a major hindrance on an applicant's ability to work, for a potentially significant duration, which can be demonstrated or practically explained in their submission for support.

Name:

Address:

City, Province:

Postal Code:

Telephone:

Eligibility Questionnaire

- Are you a Jazz Musician? Yes No

- Do you work Full Time or Part Time as a Jazz Musician?
Full Time Part Time

For the purposes of the JAZZ.FM91 Musician's Benevolent Fund, Full-time jazz musicians are defined as those who have earned 50% or more of total income over the last two years in jazz music, while Part Time jazz musicians are defined as those who have earned less than 50% of total income over the last two years in jazz music.

Please briefly tell us about yourself. Include your history as a jazz musician:

Amount of Financial Assistance Requested:

Nature of unforeseen emergency circumstances:

Upon receipt of your preliminary application, you will be contacted as soon as possible for more information. All assessments will be carried out by our JAZZ.FM91 Benevolent Fund Committee. Supporting information may be required / requested by the JAZZ.FM91 Benevolent Fund Committee as part of the application process.